Courses of Study.

In order to meet the wants of a larger class of Students, nine regular Courses of Study are provided, namely: The Normal English, Belles Lettres, Science and Literature, Classical, Practical Science, College Preparatory, Art, Music and Business. Students may adopt any of these Courses exclusively, or may select such studies from them as they desire, subject to the approval of the Faculty.

The Normal English is designed to meet the increasing demand for teachers in our Common Schools, and is heartily commended to young ladies and gentlemen who desire thorough instruction and drill in the English branches.

The Belles Lettres Course is especially arranged to accommodate young ladies who may wish to omit the Higher Mathematics beyond Elementary Algebra and Geometry. It thus affords opportunity to connect studies in Music and Art with a well-selected Course in Literature and Science.

The Course in Science and Literature is intended to give wider culture and more thorough mental discipline. It differs from the Classical Course mainly in that it omits the Greek Language entirely, and makes Latin elective with German or French during the first two years. Before entering upon this Course, the Student must be thoroughly acquainted with the Common English branches.

The Classical Course is much more extensive than is ordinarily pursued at Seminaries. It will compare favorably with the curriculum adopted by our best institutions of learning. We offer it with entire confidence to young men who are preparing for professional life, and also to young ladies who aspire to superior intellectual culture. The preparation for this Course is a thorough knowledge of the studies embraced in the Academic Course.

The Practical Science Course covers the required preparation for admission to schools of Technology and to Industrial Courses in our best Universities and Colleges. However, it is specially arranged to meet the increasing demand for scientific and literary instruction by those who contemplate an Academic training. As a preparation for assured success in industrial occupations we heartily commend it.

The College Preparatory Course is arranged for those who desire thorough instruction and systematic drill in all branches requisite for admission to our best Colleges and Universities. We commend it especially to parents who wish to place their children under the watchful care of experienced teachers, while they receive the literary culture of a high grade institution of learning, and enjoy the social advantages of a well-regulated Christian home.

COURSE IN ART.

This department is under the direction of a lady of rare ability and wide culture. Having added to the usual Art Curriculum of a Seminary the regular course at a School of Design, she is thoroughly qualified to meet the most rigid demand for instruction in both the useful and ornamental branches of the department.

The Course in Drawing comprises Linear, Perspective, Object and Model Drawing. Due attention is given to the branches of Pastel, Crayoning and China Decorating—Portrait Crayoning being a specialty. The Course in Oil embraces Landscape and Portrait Painting.

Students desiring a full Course in this department will, upon satisfactory advancement in all its branches, be entitled to a diploma.

ELOCUTION.

Elocution is recognized as a most important branch of education. This department is under the supervision of a thoroughly qualified and experienced teacher, and will include a careful vocal drill, and practice in the entire range of expression. It will also embody such a variety of Recitations and Readings as may serve to exemplify the qualities and modulations of the voice, and will cover gesture and action.

Six dollars per term of 12 weeks, in classes—36 lessons. Private lessons, 50 cents each.

BUSINESS DEPARTMENT.

This Course is designed to give a thorough knowledge of the principles of business transactions. It may be pursued alone or in connection with other studies, thus accommodating those seeking a literary, as well as those seeking only a business education. The time required to finish it will depend upon the proficiency of the pupil in the English branches, and the diligence with which he works.

STUDIES.

The Course will include instruction in the Common English branches, Book-keeping—Single and Double Entry—Business Correspondence, Business Papers of various forms, Civil Government and Political Economy.

TUITION.

Students may enter the regular classes without additional cost for tuition, except for Book-keeping, for which $5.00 per term of three months will be charged.

Board, Room, Washing, etc., same as in other departments.

ADVANTAGES.

This department offers all the opportunities for general culture afforded Students in other departments, assured by well conducted literary societies, lectures, large libraries, association with experienced teachers, and the refining influences of a Christian home.

ADMISSION.

Students may enter this department at any time in the Academic year, a fair knowledge of the English branches being the only requisite.

METHODS OF INSTRUCTION.

The instruction in the Primary Department is based on the inductive and objective methods, classes having objects presented which are studied analytically. Julia McNair Wright's Nature Readers have been introduced, where life is seen in its natural development. Practical application of the "natural method" and the facts obtained from the Readers is made in conversational lessons. The language lessons embrace Memory Lessons, Dictation Exercises, Stories read for Reproduction, Exercises in Letter Writing, Word Pictures and Composition Writing. Especial attention is given to Arithmetic and the analysis of problems. History and Geography are taught with the aid of maps, books of reference and the best text-books. Information Lessons, or elementary science studies in Natural History, teach the classes to observe and to make careful note of the objects of the animal, plant and mineral kingdoms. The method of study consists chiefly in examination of leaves, rocks and insects. The Prang Course of Form Study and Drawing, including a series of exercises with suitable methods is studied. During the present year instruction in a systematic course of Voice Culture has been given to the pupils of this department by the teacher of Vocal Music.

In Elementary Arithmetic, Grammar and Geography, the catechetical method is largely employed, but in Higher English the same course is adopted which prevails in the more advanced branches of study. The pupil is taught to study the text-book by topics rather than by sentences or paragraphs, and encouraged in the lecture room to give the substance of what he has learned, in his own language. In this manner, while he is adding to his store of knowledge, he is enlarging his vocabulary, and while he is evolving principles and acquiring facts, he is increasing his power of expression, and thus unconsciously, it may be, but nevertheless surely, he lays the foundations of an easy and concise style of composition.

In English Literature, the origin of the English language and the growth of the literature are carefully traced. In this work the most interesting facts in the lives of the best authors and their principal productions are brought under review.

Instruction in Mental Science covers the second and third terms of the Junior year. It embodies definitions of the mental faculties, and careful analyses of intellectual processes, with a brief history of the science, the main purpose being to stimulate the Student to think and investigate for himself.

Ethics, Logic and Political Economy are taught in the Senior year. Text-books are used and daily recitations are required. Class inquiries and discussions are encouraged, and familiar lectures are given from time to time by the teacher.

NATURAL SCIENCE.

In the department of Natural Science, the underlying aim is to teach the Student to think and observe for himself, and at the same time to give him such a fund of practical knowledge as will fit him for the active duties of life. In all the branches the text-book is used as a means to gain a knowledge of topics rather than to be studied as an end in itself, and as far as possible the Student is led to the study of the objects themselves. No pains are spared to cultivate habits of clear, accurate and systematic thought and expression.

GEOLOGY is taken during the first term of the Senior year. A practical knowledge of the common rocks and minerals is acquired, and excursions are made to quarries and regions which illustrate various geological formations. During the past year the class made surveys of the Lower Helderberg limestone quarries east of this city, the Chemung building stone quarries on the north, a section through North Bald Eagle Mountain into Mosquito Valley, comprising four members of the Silurian, and colored sections drawn to a scale were made of each place visited. Each student made a written report and collected characteristic specimens and fossils, and constructed of these specimens, dressed down and mounted in plaster of paris, a model representing an ideal arrangement of the seven different geological formations, fossil-bearing, admirably presented to view by outcrops within a few miles of the Seminary.

ZOOLOGY occupies the first term of the Senior year. The work, during the first half of the term, consists of acquiring a knowledge of the structure of the principal classes of the several sub-kingdoms, while during the last half the comparative anatomy and physiology of the animal kingdom is taken up, and the Student is led to appreciate the finely graded relationship that exists between the classes. Orton's text-book is used and as much laboratory work is introduced as is practicable. This year the class studied a clam, lobster, bee, fish, frog and a cat, observing closely the physiology of the circulation and respiration in the last subject, and dissecting an alcoholic specimen of the brain.

PHYSICS embraces two terms of the Junior year. Mechanics, Sound and Heat are taken in the Fall term; and Optics, Electricity and Magnetism in the Winter. The principles and laws are illustrated as far as practicable by apparatus. The relation between the different branches is held strongly before the mind, and practical questions, drawn from every-day life, are constantly brought forward to teach the Student to apply the principles learned in the text-book. The subject of Electricity is presented by a series of experiments and lectures, on which full notes are made by each Student.

In BOTANY, after a few weeks of work in Gray's School and Field Book, the Student goes directly to the plant, analysis occupying the remainder of the term. An herbarium is collected and prepared by each member of the class.

CHEMISTRY alternates with Geology in first and second terms and occupies the second and third terms of the Senior year. During the Spring term there is also elective work in Analytical Chemistry. The chemical laboratory has been fitted up this year and is fully equipped with apparatus and chemicals for advanced technical work. The room is furnished with individual tables, each supplied with gas, Bunsen's burner, ring stand, water, case with full set of reagents, and all necessary apparatus for illustrative experiment and qualitative analysis. There is also a complete set of apparatus for volumetric and gravimetric analysis and assaying. In the regular work Shepherd's Chemistry is used. Each Student keeping full notes on the experiments which are performed individually, becomes thoroughly familiar with chemicals and manipulations. In the Spring term mineralogy is taken up in the laboratory work, and the latter part of the term is devoted to the general principles of Organic Chemistry. In the analytical work Fenton and Fleischer are used as reference books. Qualitative analyses of alloys and commercial articles are made, after which quantitative analysis, both volumetric and gravimetric, is taken up. Estimation of ores by these processes and by assaying, and analyses of milk, sugars, and mineral waters are made.

During the last year a dark-room has been built and furnished with a complete photographic outfit and the advanced scientific students are given an opportunity to acquire a practical knowledge of the art of photography.

Lectures on subjects of interest to the department are given from time to time illustrated by stereoscopic views projected by a new oxy-hydrogen light.

ANCIENT LANGUAGES.

In the departments of Greek and Latin, scrupulous attention is given to the grammatical structure of these languages, their relation to English, the illustration and application of principles, accurate translation, and to the literary significance of each author studied. It is aimed to give to the classics by these means their proper place as an aid to expression, to a thorough knowledge of our own language and to the pursuit of other languages, as well as to afford the usual mental discipline. Careful attention is also given to those preparing for college or for professional study.

MODERN LANGUAGES.

During first year in German, classes complete Otis' Elementary Grammar, (edition of 1890), as far as the subject of Syntax, with study of Irregular Verbs, committing to memory all conversations, proverbs and selections. Exercises are prepared in German script with careful attention to the idiom of the language. Stern's Studien und Plaudereien is used as the basis of conversation lessons and, during spring, one of the works mentioned under list of text-books is read. In second year Syntax of Otis' Grammar is completed with frequent dictation exercises. Schrakamp's Erzählungen aus der Deutschen Geschichte is studied, much of text being memorized. Several standard novellettes are used for acquiring facility in sight reading. The spring term is given to a study of Schiller's Works.

During first year in French, classes complete Keetels' Grammar through subject of Irregular Verbs, careful attention being given, in the preparation of all exercises, to the idiom of the language. Sauveur's Causeries avec mes Élèves is used as basis for conversational forms, many short extracts being committed to memory. During Spring Term some work mentioned under text-books is read with a study of first six of La Fontaine's Fables. In second year Grammar work is completed and Rougemont's La France is studied, together with some French classic and historical work.

Literature exercises and historical work are given frequently in both languages throughout the course with object, history, and geography lessons based upon the best of charts and maps. Standard selections are frequently memorized, and a study of synonyms is also made.

MATHEMATICS.

The Course in Mathematics is coextensive with that in the majority of our best colleges. Although the study is considered as chiefly disciplinary, the aim throughout the Course is to acquaint the Student with the instruments in most familiar use by the practical scientists and mathematicians of the day, as well as to strengthen his mental faculties and increase his logical acumen. At the commencement of each subject, a familiar lecture is given on its history and practical utility.

Algebra is begun, the Student being led slowly through the rudiments, and made to review the fundamentals daily. After two terms spent in studying the elements, the University Algebra is taken up at the Calculus of Radicals, and continued through Quadratics, Proportions, Permutations and Combinations, Progressions, Identical Equations, Decomposition of Fractions, Residual Formula, Newton's Binomial Theorem, Method of Indeterminate Coefficients, Reversion of Series, Logarithms, Rule of Des Cartes, Cardan's Solution of Cubic Equations, and Sturm's Theorem. The aim of the instruction in advanced Algebra is to free the Student from his previous dependence upon the text-book, and to cultivate ability and taste for original mathematical work. Great stress is laid upon mathematical generalization and the concise demonstration of principles.

The Course in Geometry covers seven books, embracing both the Plane and Solid Geometry. The demonstrations are partly oral and partly written, the written exercises being deemed a valuable aid to the cultivation of accuracy of thought and expression. Plane Trigonometry is taken entire, and the class is exercised in the solution of practical problems. In surveying, the Theory and Practice are combined. The class is conveniently divided, and each division in turn is taken by the teacher into the field for practical work. Plots of the surveys made are drawn, and, together with the computations, are submitted to the teacher for inspection.

One term is spent in Analytical Geometry, completing the Cartesian Method of Co-ordinates, the Method of Polar Co-ordinates, and the Transformation of Co-ordinates. To Calculus two terms are given, covering, in the Differential Calculus, the Differentiation of Functions of a Single Variable, Maclaurin's and Taylor's Theorems, together with the deduction of the Binomial Theorem and the Theory of Logarithms, the Evaluation of Indeterminate Forms, and the Maxima and Minima of Functions of a Single Variable; and in the Integral Calculus, the Integration of all the Elementary Forms.

HISTORY AND RHETORIC.

In the Study of History, the object is to familiarize the Student with the main facts and principles, thus forming a foundation on which to build by future reading and investigation. To this end the text-book is thoroughly studied in connection with a Manual of Classical Antiquities and an Atlas, while at the same time the Student is encouraged to consult other authorities and bring in additional matter bearing on the subject. Recitation is by the analytical and topical methods.

Special attention is given to instruction in Rhetoric, on account of its great value to the Student. The principles of good writing are studied and analyzed with a view to their practical application.

During the last term much of the time is devoted to original productions in the various departments of literary composition, on themes assigned by the teacher. These productions are read before the class, where general criticisms are offered, after which they are handed to the teacher for more careful correction.

Special Information.

We shall not be ready to receive students before the first day of the term. On the second day classes are formed, a term schedule for recitations adopted, and lessons assigned.

Students from other schools may enter any class on passing a satisfactory examination in the previous studies of the Course, or their equivalents. The examination may be waived if the Faculty are otherwise assured that it is unnecessary.

Invitations to visit any member of the school may be given only with the approval of the President.

Visitors will not be allowed on the halls nor in the rooms of students without permission.

Students who are back in more than three studies in any year will not rank with the class of that year unless they have completed equivalent advanced studies.

German, covering three years, may be substituted for Greek in the College Preparatory Course.

The Junior and Senior Classes study Etymology during the Fall Term.

The language "elected" in the Course in Science and Literature will be retained throughout the required two years.

The ladies are allowed to substitute a Course in Music, Drawing and Painting, German or French, for the Greek Language, and for Analytical Geometry and Calculus.

The gentlemen may substitute two years in Greek or German for Analytical Geometry and Calculus.

The election or substitution of German, French, Music or Drawing and Painting does not remit the regular tuition for these branches.

Orthography, Etymology, Reading, Composition and Declamation are required of all students except those exclusively in Music, Art, and Elocution.

The classes in Trigonometry and Surveying are given such field drill as will familiarize them with practical surveying.

In the departments of Ancient and Modern Languages the classes are practiced in oral and written exercises throughout the Course.

Lectures will be given from time to time in the various departments.

General Information.

WILLIAMSPORT DICKINSON SEMINARY

Is an institution of high grade, with ample facilities for giving young ladies and gentlemen a superior education. It is organized upon the plans which have been approved by long experience, and adopted by the best schools in this country, embracing all modern appliances in means and methods of instruction. It was founded in 1848, and is regularly chartered by the Legislature of the State of Pennsylvania, and authorized to confer degrees upon those who complete the prescribed Courses of Study.

The Seminary is under the patronage of the Central Pennsylvania Conference, being owned and practically managed by the Preachers' Aid Society. As this investment was rather to promote the important work of higher Christian education than to make money, the paramount purpose is to combine thorough instruction and careful moral training with the comforts of a good home, at the lowest possible rates.

LOCATION.

Williamsport is one of the most beautiful and healthful places in the State. It has never been subject to epidemics of any kind. Many coming to the school in poor health have returned fully restored. The city is situated on the West Branch of the Susquehanna River, has a population of thirty thousand, is widely known for its intelligence, its enterprise, the taste displayed in the character of its public buildings and private residences, and the moral appliances with which it is furnished. In small towns and villages the facilities for culture—intellectual as well as æsthetic and moral—are generally limited, rarely reaching beyond the institution itself, and hence student life must become monotonous, lacking the inspiration which a larger place with wider opportunities affords. Thirty-six churches, an active temperance organization, and a branch of the Young Men's Christian Association, embracing many of the most earnest Christians in the community, with a large library free to all, and accessible at all times, indicate some of the religious influences brought to bear upon the young in Williamsport.

BUILDINGS.

The buildings occupy an eminence overlooking the city, and are surrounded by beautiful shade trees, while the grounds contain five acres, affording ample room for exercise and play. They are brick, heated by steam, provided with fire escapes and supplied throughout with pure mountain water.

The buildings are lighted throughout with electrical incandescent light. The system adopted embodies the latest improvements in generating and utilizing electricity for illuminating purposes and insures entire safety from fire or shock, so that the wires may be handled without danger. The value of an illuminant which, consuming no oxygen, leaves the air perfectly pure and at the same time furnishes abundant light, cannot be over-estimated.

The main edifice, recently rebuilt and improved, compares favorably with the best school buildings in the country, and the new Chapel is the most attractive public hall in the city.

Both departments are furnished with bath rooms and all modern appliances for comfort, and in the entire arrangement of the buildings great care has been taken for the convenience and health of the occupants.

The ladies' apartments are entirely separate from the others, and there is no association of the sexes but in the presence of their instructors. The happy influence, mutually exerted, in their slight association in the recitation room, at the table, and in the public exercises in the Chapel, is to be seen in the cultivation of a cheerful and animated disposition, in the formation of good habits and manners, in ardent devotion to study, and in the attainment of high moral character. These, with many other valuable results, have established the fact that the best plan for a school is, according to the evident design of Providence in the constitution of society, on the basis of a well-regulated Christian family. The members of the Faculty live in the building, eat at the same tables, and have constant oversight of all the Students.

PHYSICAL HEALTH.

The value of physical culture is recognized. A large Campus with very fine ball grounds for the gentlemen and lawn tennis court for the ladies furnishes stimulus and opportunity for outdoor athletic sports.

A gymnasium, forty by sixty feet, supplied with the best modern appliances for physical culture, is maintained for the use of the students, under proper regulations, for which fifty cents per term is charged. All young men, not physically incapacitated, are required to take systematic exercise in the gymnasium or military drill from two to three hours per week. Those selecting the former will furnish an appropriate gymnasium suit, including shoes.

Suitable exercise is provided for the ladies in calisthenics and light gymnastics, under the direction of a competent teacher. All the ladies are required to participate in these exercises, unless excused upon a physician's certificate.

Lectures on health will also be given from time to time, by an eminent physician.

MILITARY DEPARTMENT.

The students selecting military drill are organized into a Battalion of two or more Companies, called Dickinson Seminary Corps of Cadets.

The officers are appointed by the Faculty, all appointments being made on examination and general proficiency.

The Cadets are exercised and instructed during the year in the Infantry Tactics of the U. S. Army, comprising the School of the Soldier, the School of the Company and School of the Battalion; and in all ceremonies, forms of parade, reviews and honors to be paid by troops. All Cadets are required to furnish white helmet and white gloves, which may be procured at actual cost through the Quartermaster. These will be worn on all drills, parades, &c. The rank of Cadet officers and non-commissioned officers is designated by insignia of West Point pattern. A new stand of arms and new accoutrements have been purchased this year and a new case built in the gymnasium for their safe keeping and preservation. During pleasant weather in the Fall and Spring Terms the battalion is drilled on the Campus; at other times the gymnasium is used as a drill hall.

It is conceded that military drill furnishes one of the most valuable means of exercise and at the same time cultivates a tendency to an erect carriage, and teaches habits of neatness, punctuality, obedience, self-control and respect for others.

The attention of parents and guardians is called to the importance and value of this Department. While its first object is to instruct the student in the fundamental principles of Military Art, it also gives a mental and physical training which should strongly recommend its advantages to those responsible for the education of young men.

Special discounts are made on all bills, except tuition in Ornamental Branches, when two enter from the same family at the same time, to all Ministers, all persons preparing for the Ministry or Missionary work, and all who are preparing to teach.

PAYMENTS.

Term bills are payable in advance, one-half at opening and the balance at the middle of the term.

Ten per cent. will be added to the ordinary rate per week for board, washing, heat, light, and room, when students attend a part of a term. No reduction in tuition for less than half a term, nor for furnished room for less than a term.

Deduction for absence is made on recommendation of the President to the Treasurer.

No reduction for board or tuition for absence of two weeks or less at the beginning, or the last four weeks before the close of the term.

Five dollars must be deposited with the Treasurer on entering, to cover damages that the Student may do to room or other property. This will be returned when the Student leaves, but not before, in case no injury has been done. Any Student rooming alone will be charged $8.00 extra per term.

Day scholars will be charged from $7.00 to $14.00 per term of twelve weeks, according to the studies they pursue. No reduction in tuition for less than half a term.

WINTER TERM—12 Weeks. Begins Monday, January 2, 1893. Ends March 27. No vacation.

SPRING TERM—12 Weeks. Begins Monday, March 27, 1893. Ends June 15. Vacation, ten weeks.

This department is under the general direction of the President, but an experienced Steward and a thoroughly competent Matron have immediate charge. The department commends itself by cleanliness, abundance of supply, excellence of quality, good cooking, and adaptation to health.

DISCIPLINE.

The discipline is firm, but mild and impartial. While every encouragement will be given to the orderly and studious, and due allowance be made for youthful indiscretion, yet the lawless and refractory cannot long remain among us.

APPARATUS.

The Scientific Department is furnished with very complete outfits of Physical and Chemical Apparatus. The Museum contains a large number of rare and valuable specimens, including a fine collection of Minerals and Zoological and Physiological specimens. Among recent additions are the following :

Rev. John A. DeMoyer and Rev. John Z. Lloyd, of the Central Pennsylvania Conference, have made valuable contributions to our Reference Library.

POST-GRADUATE WORK.

We are prepared to do post-graduate work in Modern Languages, Music, Art, Chemistry and Physics.

MERIT AND DEMERIT.

A daily record is kept of all the exercises of the School, from which record the Students will be graded. A record of demerits is also kept. Tardiness, unexcused absences from required exercises, and all disorderly conduct, will subject the Student to demerit marks. Such marks bring a private reproof before the Faculty, a public reprimand before the whole school, and may send the offender away. Sessional reports are sent to parents.

RELIGIOUS CHARACTER.

Dickinson Seminary is not sectarian in any sense, but it is positively and emphatically Christian in its administration and work. By combining practical Christian teaching with thorough intellectual training, under the personal supervision of Christian men and women, especially qualified by education and experience, the School has established a reputation among literary institutions and won the confidence of the public in a degree of which its friends and patrons may be justly proud.

RELIGIOUS SERVICES.

Every Student is required to attend religious services in the Chapel daily, as well as public worship morning and evening every Sabbath, at such place as parents or guardians may designate, the President assenting.

A Bible reading, conducted by the President, will be substituted for the evening service once a month or oftener, as may be deemed proper.

N. B.—Each Student must be supplied with a Bible, to be read, without note or sectarian comment, in the services of the Chapel. The whole school read in concert.

A general experience meeting is held every Sabbath at half-past eight A. M., and generally a service of song at six P. M., continuing one hour. Also, a prayer meeting for the ladies and gentlemen on Thursday evenings. Attendance upon these social services is optional with the Students.

RELIGIOUS ORGANIZATIONS.

A Young Woman's Foreign Missionary Society has been in successful operation for several years. This society acquires and diffuses missionary intelligence, creates and maintains an interest in the work of the General Society and prepares its members for efficient service as centers of Christian influence at their homes when school days are ended. It has largely contributed to the education of a missionary for India.

CANDIDATES FOR THE MINISTRY.

A preacher who can, when necessary, conduct the singing in a prayer meeting and in a revival service acquires a power for good which cannot otherwise be attained. Indeed the usefulness of a preacher is largely augmented by a knowledge of music and ability to sing. Recognizing this fact, we have arranged to give weekly lessons in singing and careful instruction in voice culture to all young men who are preparing to preach, at the nominal cost of one dollar per term. This provision also includes young women who are preparing for either home or foreign missionary work.

STUDENTS OF LIMITED MEANS.

We have organized a system by which a limited number of Students may earn a part of the cost of education.

We now give light employment, not appreciably interfering with study, to seventeen young men and three young women, paying from fifteen to thirty per cent. of bills. Applicants for these positions are enrolled and vacancies are filled in the order of application, preference being given to those in the School. Applicants must be recommended by their pastor, or some responsible person, as worthy of help. No one will be retained who is not earnest in his studies and faithful to all required duties.

LITERARY EXERCISES.

In addition to class work, public exercises are held in the Seminary Chapel every Friday evening, at which the more advanced Students read essays or deliver original speeches, interspersed with vocal or instrumental music, furnished by the Music Department.

LITERARY SOCIETIES.

There are three flourishing Literary Societies connected with the Seminary—the Belles Lettres, the Gamma Epsilon and the Tripartite Union. The first two are in the gentlemen's, and the last in the ladies' department. Each has a well furnished hall and a judiciously selected library, aggregating more than two thousand volumes. Each prepares and reads a paper in the Chapel once in three weeks, in connection with other literary exercises, thus furnishing inspiration to intellectual culture, as well as entertainment for the Students and the public.

HOME FEATURES.

The Seminary is a boarding school of the highest grade, taking rank among the very best, with superior appointments and appliances for the health and culture of its Students. It is also a well-ordered home. First of all, the President and his family reside in the building, forming a part of the school and are always accessible to all its members. The wife of the President entertains the Young Woman's Missionary Society once a month, in her apartments, and occasionally receives the entire school in her parlors, while in times of sickness she visits the young ladies in their rooms, giving such suggestions and directions as the experience of a mother may supply. Again, the members of the Faculty are so distributed throughout the building as to be readily accessible at any time for such help as the Students may desire outside of the recitation room. Again, recognizing the value of social culture as a factor in preparation for a useful life, the President and Faculty give a formal reception once each term to the whole school in the beautiful Chapel, which for the occasion is transformed into an attractive drawing room, while weekly informal "socials," continuing from thirty minutes to an hour, after the public Friday evening entertainments, relieve the monotony of routine work, cultivate a cheerful spirit and meet the natural desire for social pleasures. In these and all practicable ways an appeal is made to the higher elements in the nature; mutual interest inspires mutual respect; opportunity is afforded to study character, and the school becomes a pleasant and safe Christian home, as well as a place for careful mental and moral training.

INSTRUCTION.

Our methods are modern, and adapted to the need of the Students. No pains are spared to give thorough, practical and scholarly training in all the departments by teachers of superior attainments and experience. Besides instruction in connection with the text-book, lectures illustrated by experiments are given from time to time.

Students in Music have opportunity to hear distinguished artists, which is of great advantage in acquiring a correct taste, as also in enlarging their knowledge. In addition to frequent Organ Recitals by musicians of recognized ability, eminent musicians from a distance frequently give concerts to which our Music pupils are admitted at reduced rates.

SPECIAL LECTURES.

Special lectures in the form of familiar talks will be given each term by the President. These lectures will cover the discussion of social ethics, the care of health, how to eat, how to work, how to play, how to rest, current literature and current events in relation to school life, with other subjects which may be helpful to young people who wish to make the most of opportunity.

The President will also give a course of lectures to young men preparing for the ministry, covering such themes as may be of value to them as preachers, as pastors and as citizens.

YOUNG LADIES.

Constant and systematic efforts are made looking toward the general culture of the young ladies committed to our care. The lady members of the Faculty take personal interest in all things pertaining to their welfare and are intimately associated with them in recreation hours.

Every Saturday short lectures are given by the Preceptress to all young ladies on social culture, literature, art and kindred topics. During the coming year, in addition to these lectures, the ladies of the Senior class will meet the Preceptress monthly for purposes of literary criticism.

TELEGRAPHY.

Among the physical apparatus are several telegraphing instruments, one of which, the gift of Benjamin G. Welch, Superintendent of the Williamsport and North Branch Railroad, is a very fine model, showing the various parts of different instruments. During the year a number of instruments have been placed in students' and teachers' rooms, affording excellent opportunity for study and practice to those who desire to fit themselves for practical work in this growing branch of industry.

TEACHERS.

A Normal Class may be organized during the Fall and Spring Terms for those who desire to teach. The Course will comprehend special instruction by Lectures on the Theory and Methods of Teaching by the President. No extra charge will be made.

SCHOLARSHIPS.

Mr. DeWitt Bodine, of Hughesville, Pa., an alumnus of the Seminary, has the honor of founding the first full scholarship in this Institution. It is to be filled from the public schools of Hughesville by competitive examinations and is designated

THE DEWITT BODINE SCHOLARSHIP.

It pays all expenses of board, tuition, etc., in any regular course of study.

Who will imitate Mr. Bodine's example? Are there not generous men and women among our alumni and friends ready to invest a portion of their wealth where it will be secure and work for God for ever? A comparatively small sum will do a large work. The interest on a thousand dollars, in many instances, will supplement the meager resources of a worthy young man or woman whom God has given large ability but from whom fortune has withheld the means to develop it. This is especially true of those who are called into the ministry or into missionary work. Any sum will help, and three thousand dollars will found a ministry or missionary scholarship in this Institution and maintain it perpetually.

OUTFIT.

The gentlemen should be provided with an umbrella, and a pair of slippers to be worn in the room. The ladies must be supplied with thick walking shoes, an umbrella, India-rubber overshoes, water-proof cloak and a suit for exercise in calisthenics and light gymnastics. Their attire for general use should be neat and simple, but not elegant or expensive. All wearing apparel must be plainly marked with full name of the owner. We suggest that in addition to towels, napkins and napkin ring, each pupil bring a knife, fork and spoon, for use in case of sickness.

A WORD TO PARENTS.

1. ~~Do~~ Try to have your children here on the first day of the term, but not before, as we shall not be ready to receive them. The classes are formed on the second day, and it will be better for all concerned that the Student start regularly with his class.

2. If possible, do not call them away during the session. Absence, if only for a few days, disarranges the class, and is generally the beginning of irregularity on the part of the scholar.

3. Do not allow your children to leave the School before the examinations, unless it cannot be avoided. Serious inconvenience to all concerned often arises from a neglect of this caution.

4. Supply them very sparingly with spending money. Parents cannot be too cautious on this point.

5. Select for your child one of the instructors as a patron, to distribute his funds. In this way a more judicious use of your money will be made, and your child will be kept from many temptations.

☞ Students not boarding in the Institution must observe the following rules:

1. Attend daily prayers, unless excused.
2. Must spend the intervals between recitations in the Study Hall.
3. Must account for all absence by written excuse without delay, time and number of recitations being specified.
4. Must not visit the rooms of boarders without permission.

MEANS OF ACCESS.

Williamsport is eight and a half hours from New York, six hours from Philadelphia, nine hours from Pittsburg, six hours from Baltimore, three hours from Harrisburg, and three hours from Elmira, and is reached directly by the Pennsylvania, the Philadelphia and Reading, the Northern Central and the Philadelphia and Erie railroads, which pass through the city, and as these have connections directly with all the great railroads, is readily accessible from all quarters.

GRADUATES AND FORMER STUDENTS.

It may safely be estimated that from eight to ten thousand persons have received Academic instruction, covering from one to three years, in Williamsport Dickinson Seminary, while five hundred and sixty-one have completed the prescribed curriculum, graduating with the degrees the Institution confers. We desire to bring all these into active sympathy and co-operation with their Alma Mater, and hence we ask all persons to whom this notice may come, who have been Students here, to send us their address, with any information concerning their personal history that may be of general interest, as we wish to compile a complete catalogue of all the Students now living.

There is a general meeting of the Alumni every year, the day before Commencement. We extend a most cordial invitation to all old Students to attend the meeting this year, which will be held June 15, in the afternoon and evening. If you cannot come, let us hear from you by letter.

And now, may I not ask you to aid in enlarging the sphere and increasing the power of our Alma Mater? You can do much in many ways, but you can at least direct those looking for a good Boarding School to ours, or send me their address on a postal card. Carry the Seminary in your heart. She is doing a worthy work, and earnestly asks her sons and daughters to help her.

Opinions of Patrons and Friends.

That the public may form an intelligent opinion of the estimation in which the Institution is held by those who have had opportunity to judge of its management and practical work, we publish some testimonials recently received from our friends and patrons:

HUGHESVILLE, PA., April 26, 1892.

Rev. E. J. Gray, D. D., President Dickinson Seminary:

DEAR SIR—Your invitation to the patrons of Dickinson to express their opinions covers so much detail that it will be difficult to condense quite as much as is necessary. My opinions are formed from rather frequent visits to Dickinson Seminary, from the experience of my daughter as one of your students and an acquaintance with some of your Faculty, gained by my visits, together with the opportunity of hearing the unrestrained expressions of students, and my conclusions are as follows: The Seminary has a cheerful, attractive atmosphere about it, with an entire absence of any appearance of physical restraint. It is so pleasantly warmed by your steam heating system in cool weather that I have noticed, always, that it was very thoroughly ventilated and full of fresh, pure air. Having taken meals with the students quite a number of times, I have always enjoyed the table service and bill of fare; the home-like intercourse at the table I consider quite a desirable feature. I have been fully satisfied with the system of teaching, which aims to have the students learn to understand what they are taught rather than to commit it to memory merely, so as to get through a recitation. The system of government that appeals to the honor and conscience of the pupils is certainly preparing them for the decision of actual questions of life, better than any system of physical restraint could possibly do, and at the same time secures a very much higher tone in the school; above all, the grand work that is done in leading the students "up through nature to nature's God," so as to secure their conversion is, to my mind, your crowning success.

I do not know of any institution making a better record for itself than Dickinson Seminary, and I hope it may secure such financial aid from time to time as shall enable it to very much increase its accommodations.

Very truly yours,

BENJ. G. WELCH,

General Manager of Williamsport & North Branch R. R. Co.

My eldest daughter graduated from Williamsport Dickinson Seminary in 1886. From my knowledge of the school, I do not hesitate to recommend it as one of the best institutions in our church. As a home for young ladies, both for its comforts and healthfulness, I know of none superior. The discipline is all any one could ask, and the facilities for mental and moral culture are of high order, suited to those seeking higher education. The President, Rev. E. J. Gray, D. D., I have known intimately for many years, and he has qualities which eminently fit him for the responsible position which he holds.

RICHARD NORRIS,

Pastor of Harford Avenue M. E. Church, Baltimore Conference, Baltimore, Md.

My judgment of Williamsport Dickinson Seminary, based on knowledge derived from several years' residence in close proximity to the institution, and also from two sons who have been students in the school, is, that for opportunity for mental and moral culture, for helpfulness, for home comforts and especially for discipline, the Seminary is worthy my most earnest commendation.

J. H. MCGARRAH,

Pastor M. E. Church, York, Pa.

ERRATUM.

Wednesday, 10.00 o'clock A. M., for Belles Lettres
read Tripartite Union.

BLOOMSBURG, PA., May 7, 1889.

I have watched for years, with pleasure, the steady growth and prosperity of Williamsport Dickinson Seminary under your excellent management. I have been impressed with its kind, but firm discipline, the great opportunity for intellectual and moral improvement, and the delightful home feeling and influence that seem to unite the Faculty and students and pervade the entire institution. I regard it as one of the best schools of the kind in the country, and in every way worthy of the confidence and patronage of the Christian public. This knowledge I obtained from personal observation as a resident pastor among the Faculty and students.

JOHN DONAHUE,
P. E. Danville District, Central Pa. Conference.

HARRISBURG, PA., May 8, 1889.

Three of my children have attended Dickinson Seminary for a period aggregating between six and seven years. As regards everything that goes to make up a first-class school of the kind, I doubt if it is surpassed by any school in the country, and there are very few its equal. I can heartily recommend it to parents and others having children to educate.

B. F. STEVENS.

CANTON, PA., May 6, 1889.

I take great pleasure in bearing testimony to the high moral tone and good discipline of Dickinson Seminary.

I am convinced that the degree of advancement is fully equal to the standard in other schools of equal grade.

My information is obtained from general observation, and from having a daughter in attendance for over a year.

GEORGE A. GUERNSEY, Bank Cashier.

BLOSSBURG, PA., May 8, 1889.

My daughter has been a student in Williamsport Dickinson Seminary for the past two years, and noting her progress, as well as from personal observation, I am satisfied that the Seminary is to be highly commended for its moral and home-like atmosphere, and its high standards of intellectual culture.

B. F. TRACY,
Pastor M. E. C., Central N. Y. Conference.

I have been a student of Dickinson Seminary. For three years I made that my home, and found it to embrace all the advantages pertaining to my social, intellectual and moral improvement.

L. M. BRADY,
Class '84, Pastor M. E. Church, Coalport, Pa.

I am an alumnus of Williamsport Dickinson Seminary. Regard it as a very careful institution; careful to provide facilities for mental and moral improvement; careful in looking after the character of its young men and women.

J. H. MORTIMER,
Pastor M. E. Church, Conyngham, Pa.

I can heartily recommend Dickinson Seminary to any young person desiring a higher education.

My knowledge of the character of the work done at your school is personal, having spent four school years there as a student. The method of instruction adopted by the President is, in my judgment, the best.

The best feature is, this institution is an all around educator, physical, mental and moral, and all receive due attention.

GEORGE E. KING,
Class '76, Pastor M. E. Church, Duncansville, Pa.

Having at one time been a student of Dickinson Seminary, recently a visitor, also a patron, it seems to me that the home like arrangements of the buildings and management, being so much after the order of a family, makes this institution one to be highly prized by its patrons. We think also its Faculty will compare favorably with any other school of like grade, and the students become greatly attached to the place.

JOHN L. BABB,
Farmer, Greenland, W. Va.

Having visited the Seminary during a three years' course of my daughter, thus coming in contact with the Faculty and the outlined discipline of the school, one of the many good features that impressed me most forcibly was the religious influence that pervaded the entire school and the home-like association between Faculty and students.

I can commend it to those seeking a place for co-education.

W. H. SHICK,
Stove Manufacturer, Reading, Pa.

I take pleasure in stating from my observation and knowledge of your school, having had three children in attendance, that I believe the location and general surroundings of your school to be the most beautiful of any similar institution in Pennsylvania. I admire your discipline and cordially approve of your method of instruction, believing your school the most home-like to the pupil of any in the State.

G. W. HUNTLEY, Driftwood, Pa.

From frequent observation and intercourse with the students I am led to believe the school to be in good condition, and under Dr. Gray and his present Faculty to be doing as good work as any school of its grade in the country. It certainly is well furnished with teachers and all other facilities, and ought to commend itself to all our people.

M. L. GANOE,
Pastor Ridge Avenue M. E. Church, Harrisburg, Pa.

It is a pleasure to give cordial commendation to your school, especially as relating to discipline, healthfulness and facilities for mental improvement. My brother and sister were in your care.

Very sincerely yours,
HENRY C. SMITH,
Baltimore Conference, Aberdeen, Harford County, Md.

I was a student in Williamsport Dickinson Seminary three years, completing the Classical Course in 1862. My eldest daughter graduated there in 1887. A son and daughter are now there attending school. Of course I have some knowledge of the school. It certainly has done excellent work all along, and seems to be doing still better as the years go on. The buildings are pleasant and comfortable, and good health generally prevails in the institution. I regard it an excellent school for mental and moral culture.

S. A. CREVELING,
Pastor M. E. Church, Town Hill, Pa.

I have been a patron and close observer of Williamsport Dickinson Seminary for two years, and am satisfied that it is a school of superior advantages, possessing healthfulness and home-like comforts, while its facilities for mental and moral culture, including music and painting, are excellent. I believe it is the constant aim and faithful endeavor of the President and Faculty to secure the very best results for all the students. The government and discipline meet with my hearty approval.

R. MALLALIEU, White Haven, Pa.

I finished my preparation for college at Williamsport Dickinson Seminary. I learned more at the Seminary in one year than I had at other schools in two. I consider it to be one of the very best institutions of learning of its grade in the State. Its moral and religious influences are of the best.

T. M. B. HICKS,
Lawyer, Williamsport, Pa.

It affords me great pleasure to bear testimony to the high character and thorough work of Williamsport Dickinson Seminary. Having been a student in the institution, I am enabled to speak from personal knowledge. The school embodies all the essential features of a Christian home. Its location and sanitary equipments insure its healthfulness, while its facilities for mental and moral culture are of such character as to secure to students the largest and best results. Parents need not hesitate to commit their children to its wholesome and stimulating discipline.

G. MURRAY KLEFFER,
Pastor M. E. Church, Danville, Pa.

Having had two daughters graduated at the Williamsport Dickinson Seminary, I think I can speak understandingly in regard to the merits of the school. I can, therefore, conscientiously recommend it to those who may be seeking an education, or those who may have children to educate, as an institution where every effort is made, and generally successful, to develop the physical, mental and moral nature of its pupils.

A. B. HOOVEN,
Pastor M. E. Church, Stewartstown, Pa.

Having had two sons educated at this school, I would earnestly recommend Williamsport Dickinson Seminary to parents having children to educate, or to any others desirous of a thorough education, because of its facilities for mental and moral culture, and for its home comforts and healthfulness.

A. N. HARVEY,
Merchant, Harveyville, Pa.

My son attended the Dickinson Seminary. I consider the location healthful, accommodations good, discipline kindly and conscientious, and I know of no school that stands higher for mental and moral culture.

D. E. THOMAS,
Farmer, Darlington, Hereford County, Md.

It affords me pleasure to bear testimony to the home comforts, discipline, healthfulness and facilities for mental and moral culture afforded by Williamsport Dickinson Seminary. My knowledge is positive, my daughter having been a student in the school for three years, and my wife having been to see the institution herself. I can heartily recommend the school to others.

WILSON J. STERLING,
Boiler Works, Reading, Pa.

A student experience of more than three years at Dickinson Seminary compels me to think highly of her, my Alma Mater. An Alumnus of the Seminary, afterwards graduated from one of our oldest and best colleges, said to the writer that he would not exchange the mental discipline gained through class-room drill at the Seminary for all he afterwards got at college. My wife (Alumna) says: "The religious influence of the Seminary were excellent." My own appreciation of the all around advantages of the Seminary is manifest in the fact that when looking out for a school for an only and much loved sister, I chose Dickinson Seminary. May your excellent school ever be crowded with excellent young people.

C. V. HARTZELL,
Class '79, Pastor M. E. Church, Newton Hamilton, Pa.

I most heartily endorse the Seminary all the way through. Three years' drill there has helped me to do work I could not have done without it.

G. W. STEVENS,
Class '81, Pastor M. E. Church, Harrisburg, Pa.

I very cordially commend Williamsport Dickinson Seminary as an institution of learning. My knowledge of the Seminary is personal, being an Alumnus of the institution.

I believe its facilities for mental and moral culture to be unsurpassed by any school of like grade in this country.

BENJ. H. MOSSER,
Class '77, M. E. Church, Milton, Pa.

I was a student in Dickinson Seminary from 1877 to 1886. The thorough instruction and culture I received have been the great helps in my work, and not less important, the school was a good home. The religious influence was of the highest character. In the revival of 1879 thirty students were converted, being all the unconverted boarding students but four. Since entering upon my life work I have had abundant opportunity for observing the work of the school. The religious and home influences continue, and the efficiency of the school in all departments is rapidly increasing.

J. D. W. DEAVOR,
Pastor M. E. Church, Weatherly, Pa.

During a three years' residence in the beautiful city of Williamsport, Pa., as pastor of Grace Methodist Episcopal Church, and as such a member of the Board of Managers of the Preachers' Aid Society, and also of the Conference Visiting Committee, it was my privilege often to visit Williamsport Dickinson Seminary. As my knowledge of the institution increased relative to its location, healthfulness, equipment, discipline, morals, and the excellence and thoroughness of the work done in it, my regard and admiration increased.

I have no hesitancy in pronouncing it one of the very best institutions in the State, and cordially commend it to all seeking for their young people the advantages of a first-class Seminary, as admirably adapted to secure the fullest realization of their hopes.

R. H. GILBERT,
Pastor M. E. Church, Tyrone, Pa.

The one feature which impressed me most while taking the course at Dickinson Seminary, and of which I have thought most frequently since, is the good practical sense, shown in many ways, that pervades the instruction, discipline and social intercourse. I am more and more grateful for what that did for me.

J. R. DUNKERLY,
Class '78, Pastor M. E. Church, Hopewell, Pa.

I have been a patron of Dickinson Seminary for the past three years, and from the knowledge I have obtained by visits to the Seminary and from my daughter, I cheerfully recommend this Seminary to those seeking a school. The buildings are ample and contain all the modern improvements for the comfort of pupils—in reality it is a home—accessible by rail from all points. The curriculum of studies is of a high order, and under the excellent discipline—a parental one—of Dr. Gray and an efficient corps of professors and teachers, I am confident patrons will never regret having patronized this school.

JAMES W. TROXELL,
Farmer, formerly Teacher, Emmitsburg, Md.

I have been a student in Williamsport Dickinson Seminary. The discipline is good, the moral and religious atmosphere of the very best. Instruction thorough—being practical rather than theoretical. The recent improvements to the building have added very largely to its beauty, comfort, convenience and usefulness.

E. M. STEVENS,
Class '82, Pastor M. E. Church, Harrisburg, Pa.

Having spent three years and a half in Dickinson Seminary after I was twenty-two years of age, I am ready to say that as a school for mental and moral culture and helpful discipline, impartially administered, I think there are few equals and none superior to the Seminary in the country.

S. D. WILSON,
'83, Pastor M. E. Church, Williamsport, Pa.

My daughter having graduated at Dickinson Seminary, has given me opportunity to know its worth. For home-like comforts, healthfulness, and discipline, as well as for moral and mental culture, I would cheerfully recommend the institution to all seeking higher education.

R. M. KLINE,
Merchant, New Cumberland, Pa.

It gives me pleasure to recommend Dickinson Seminary as a school of high moral and religious character. My son being a student in the Seminary during the past year has led me to be a close observer. The discipline of the school and the situation of the buildings make it a desirable and inviting educational home.

JOSEPH NIXON, SR., Altoona, Pa.

Having spent three years at Williamsport Dickinson Seminary, under the present administration, I can heartily recommend the institution to any one seeking a higher education. Superior intellectual advantages are offered. The personal interest manifested in the students is a commendable feature. The discipline is firm, yet mild and parental; in short, the Seminary is a Christian home, where every interest of the student is delightfully guarded. My experience has been that the moral atmosphere pervading the school is more conducive to a healthy religious growth than the influence characterizing the majority of our institutions of learning.

O. G. HECK,
Class '84, Pastor M. E. Church, Watsontown, Pa.

I can very readily commend the Dickinson Seminary, Williamsport, Pa., to persons wishing to educate their children. Three of our children (son and two daughters) have attended this institution, and during their attendance I was a frequent visitor and was favorably impressed with the management, its healthful location, discipline and low cost of tuition, &c., in comparison with other schools of same grade.

JOHN G. MCGRAW,
Superintendent and Real Estate Agent, Claysburg, Pa.

Having spent nearly two years in Dickinson Seminary, under the present management, I have no hesitancy in recommending it as a first-class school. The location is admirable, the influence over the students is good, the facilities for mental and moral culture are excellent. If I had children to go to any school they would certainly go to the Seminary at Williamsport.

ALEX. LAMBERSON,
Pastor M. E. Church, Dillsburg, Pa.

I was a student at the Seminary four years—Class '82—and for home-like surroundings, facilities for mental and moral training, healthfulness and kind parental discipline, it is not surpassed by any school of its class, and equaled by few. I recommend the Seminary to any and all parents seeking a school where children can get the most good and the least harm.

Yours truly,

R. S. TAYLOR,
Pastor M. E. Church, Picture Rocks, Pa.
